

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE, NEWMARKET, NH MAY 30, 2006

6:00 p.m. – Line up at Elm Street – Library Area.

6:30 p.m. – Step off and proceed to Main St., Packers Falls Road to the Riverside Cemetery

Mass colors for the Memorial Service at the Unknown Soldiers Memorial

Master of Ceremonies: Colin White, Post 67 Commander

Opening prayer: Sherman Philbrick, Post 67 Chaplain

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag: Post 67 Commander Colin White

Please remove your hats and everyone place your hand over your heart.

The following may not happen:

We have with us today a long time resident of Newmarket and now from Englewood Florida, who came here today to be with us in our parade. WW II Stalag 17 POW Edward Dostie. Thank you Ed.

Chairman of the Newmarket Town Council: Jennifer Jarvis

Town Administrator, Al Dixon

Song: Song of Choice, by Colin White

Guest Speaker: Commander Michael Elmstrom US Navy, Off Yard Operation Officer, Portsmouth Naval Shipyard

We will now hear the Navy Hymn by the Newmarket High School Band under the direction of Nick Zaricki

Wreath Laying: American Legion Auxiliary Unit 67 President Karen Cotton and Unit 67 Chaplain Glenda Joyce

Closing Prayer: Unit 67 Chaplain, Glenda Joyce

Salute: Firing Squad volley by the First Newmarket Militia under the Command of Captain Sanford Walker.

Taps: Newmarket High School Band. Thank the Band under the direction of Nick Zaricki

THIS IS THE END OF OUR MEMORIAL SERVICE

Return march and disband at the Newmarket Community Church

Note: All parade participants are invited to the American Legion Post 67 for refreshments.

DONALD L. SMALL, adjutant, American Legion Post 67

Tentative schedule with regards to the program at Riverside Cemetery.